

Unicorn wrestlers compete in San Antonio

By Justin Coons

Published January 11, 2009

SAN ANTONIO — The New Braunfels varsity wrestlers rode in to the Rough Rider Invitational this past weekend.

While the Unicorns' junior varsity guys rested, four varsity wrestlers competed.

Slater Hodges finished 3-1. The 135-pounder's only loss came to a scrapper from Little Axe, Okla. Freshman Jake Lock went 2-1 at 140 pounds, and Mason Davis went an undefeated 3-0 at 180 pounds, taking two decisions by pinfall.

Justin Gonzales, the unluckiest of the Unicorns varsity wrestlers this past weekend, was forced to move up a weight class. Gonzales lost all three matches.

The junior varsity guys have the day off again today as New Braunfels' varsity wrestlers compete at the Craig T. Grace Centex Invitational in Austin.

For more information on the New Braunfels High School wrestling team, go to www.unicornwrestling.com.

Copyright © 2009 The Herald-Zeitung